

Feature-length films and short films

Competition

Workshops

Oscar-awarded and internationally acclaimed films

Tributes and collaborations with other international animation festivals

Panels with popular field speakers

Kids Be There! Festival

Friends of the animation art, students of the Ionian University and the art loving audience of Corfu are expected to attend the first Animation Festival that will take place in the Western Greece and one of the very few film festivals in the broader area.

The Sponsorship department of Be There! Corfu Animation Festival has prepared a full Sponsorship Plan, which refers to the companies that may wish to participate in this big event for the island of Corfu.

For more information please contact sponsors@betherefest.gr